CABLE ADDRESS: BALDCO

Dear Sir,

How many people will be on your company's Christmas gift list this year?

I can tell you about a rather different kind of business gift. It's the sort of thing that will bring you the thanks of all of the people who receive it.

It's a book, an extraordinary book--a special bound edition of the Rand McNally Atlas for North America.

What makes this atlas such a rare business gift? Simply this: It is a personal gift for your friends and their families to use all year long—at home, at the office, and on the road.

I would particularly like you to see this book. May I send you one? No charge, of course. Simply fill out and mail the enclosed reply card. Thank you.

Sincerely yours,

James E. Dunaway

The special bound edition of the Rand McNally Atlas

Every Single Map is all new, easy-to-read, in four colors.

What a wonderful way to say Merry Christmas to your business friends. Here is a gift they cannot buy in any store, or even from the publisher—a special bound edition of the most complete, exact, up-to-date Rand McNally Atlas for North America.

You'll hear thanks when you give this book. More important, the people you give it to will use it all year long.

They'll use it at home, at the office, and on the road.

It's an exceptional gift—personal, and yet there is no problem of personal taste, color or size.

A sample of this marvelous book is available to businessmen seeking a unique business gift.
